

THE NUMISMATIST

Official Publication of
AMERICAN NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION

N. NEIL HARRIS
Editor

P. O. BOX 2366, COLORADO SPRINGS, COLORADO 80901

September 5, 1974

Mr. Eric P. Newman
PO Box 14020
St. Louis, MO 63178

Dear Eric:

Enclosed please find your Heath Literary Award Certificate awarded for your article, "Numismatic Humor on Civil War Patriotic Envelopes," as published in The Numismatist during 1973.

We are indeed sorry you weren't in attendance at the August 17, 1974 awards presentation ceremony in Miami, Florida to receive the acclaim of the members present, as well as the award.

Please accept my personal congratulations, and those of the members of the board of governors. I do hope you will submit future works to The Numismatist, and once again share your literary talents with the ANA membership at large.

Sincerely,

N. Neil Harris
Editor

NNH/mar
enc.

American Numismatic Association

Chartered by Congress

1912

Heath Literary Award

Eric P. Newman

IN RECOGNITION OF YOUR OUTSTANDING LITERARY CONTRIBUTION
PUBLISHED IN THE NUMISMATIST DURING THE YEAR
1973

W. Hal Wams
Editor

F. W. Bridges
Awards Chairman

Virginia Culver
President
Leann R. R.
Executive Director

ALL I WA'T IS TO BE LET A LOAN,

$15,000 000.

I'LL TAKE ANYTHING—

But WASHINGTON,
That's no CAPITOL for me.

A Sunday-school teacher, deplores the lack of attention on his ministrations, expected to the few present.

The vote in Tennessee has been taken, as far as heard to date, and the result is as follows:

SIX DOLLARS

VI

SIX DOLLARS

The United Colonies

SIX DOLLARS

No. 45541

SIX DOLLARS

W. Gibson
J. Franklin

Know Your Rights

SIX DOLLARS

SIX DOLLARS

VI

SIX DOLLARS

THE CURRENCY OF OUR REVOLUTIONARY WAR
 The pay of a Colonel would not purchase a fine horse
 A General's staff would not buy a good horse
 A Cavalry Captain would not buy a good horse
 A Lieutenant would not buy a good horse

Fac-Simile of the New Confederate Bond

Design for a New Coin of the U. S. A

A Sunday-school teacher, dipping the book in ink.

They, as yet, no longer study, classically.

Magre, 316 Chestnut St., Phila.

NEW SOUTHERN COIN

Design for a New Coin of the C. S. A.

A Sunday-school teacher, depicting the lack of attendance on his ministrations, appealed to the few present: "What can I do," said he, "to get the boys and girls here?" "I know," said one of the archbishops. "What is it?" "Give 'em all sixpence a piece," he said.

A Political Question.—Has the "tide of events" any thing to do with the "current of public opinion" that is flowing?

The man who was lost in lumber found his way out on a rail fence.

THE VOTE IN TENNESSEE.—The result of the election, as far as it is ascertained, is as follows:

UNION AND SECESSION.

The recent action of the people of Tennessee has wrought a change in the feeling of the Union. There are now about 750,000 Union men in Tennessee, between Graham and Midway, and the feeling between them and the seceders is very warm. The Union feeling predominates there, and no man is likely to recover from his wound, though it is a dangerous one.

DESIGNS FOR A NEW COIN FOR THE C. S. A.

ONE AND INSEPARABLE.

Mazou, 216 Chestnut Street, Phila.

"United we stand,"
Divided we fall.

All we want is to be let alone